RELEASE COVID19

Dear Valued Customer

The Family at Vicente Gandia would like to update you of the measures set in place by the company with respect to the COVID 19 virus pandemic.

As you would expect, we have activated our emergency plans and whilst these are challenging times for all of us, we reassure you that the company is operating normally, the sales teams working from home and we are fully up to speed with the latest technology to enable electronic communication as you might need.

Orders are being processed smoothly and our buying power and strong supply base mean that we do not expect any disruption to services that we provide you with.

Should you have any specific needs, then please feel free to contact us and, as always, we will do our best to accommodate them as rapidly as possible.

Amidst all the current uncertainty, we thank you for your continued business and trust that you, your families and colleagues remain in good health.

Best regards

José Mª Gandía Perales
President

Javier Gandía de Cecilio
